Overview

This report describes how the program spent its funds in the year under review and what the auditors found when they checked the records.

Findings

Most payments were supported by a signed form, but a minority were not, and the reasons are set out below.

Recommendations follow from the findings above and are listed in order of priority for the Agency.